

Automated Regulators

The diagram below depicts one of several types of automated regulators

Pump Stations

Used to lift sanitary flows from low-lying areas into community sewers or interceptors

